CHAMPIONING CREATIVITY ACROSS THE ART AND DESIGN WORLD

Haw Lin for SZ Magazine

Well hello there! Famed image wizards Haw-Lin become stylists for SZ magazine

Haw-Lin, the godfathers of scroll (I literally just made that up) and the original image-bankers are famed for their impeccable taste. It makes complete sense, then, for them to be commissioned increasingly regularly to be stylists. In this recent work for Sueddeutsche Zeitung magazine, Nathan and Jacob utilise luscious props and coloured backgrounds to make a fashion shoot that wouldn't look entirely out of place in a mid 1980s, spring/summer Vogue spread. These are some very clever boys, and no one should underestimate their talents, or their consistently extraordinary mood boards.
